Context: Cyberbullying is an increasing form of bullying in our society over a number of different social media platforms. Many young people experience this form of bullying and the justice system plays an important role in investigating and dealing with cyberbullying cases.

Format:

You will present a speech or powerpoint presentation to the class.

Task:

Analyse the effectiveness of the Australian law when dealing with cases of cyberbullying.

In your presentation you need to address the following points

- Describe rights of people in regards to cyberbullying
- Identify laws that apply to cyberbullying and explain how they are enforced
- Identify the legal consequences of cyberbullying
- Provide an example of a case, identify the platform (e.g Snapchat, Facebook, Instagram), give an overview of the case, and explain the outcome.
- Make a judgment on the effectiveness of the law in protecting people from cyberbullying. Explain your answer.

Submission:

On the due date, you must hand in a printed copy of your speech and a copy of your presentation on a USB.

Assessment policy: Late submissions will be deducted marks at 20% per day of the total maximum mark. Any student absent on the due date will need to submit the task on the first day back at school. An Appendix A form (obtain this from your classroom teacher) also needs to be submitted within THREE days of your return to school. The Appendix A MUST be accompanied by a note from a parent/guardian supporting your absence.
