Task Description:

Students are to compose an essay on the drama studied in class. They will explore the key ideas within the prescribed text.

How are key ideas conveyed to the audience effectively using dramatic techniques, form and features?

- Students are to compose (write) an ESSAY of between 800 and 1000 words.
- Your name and your teacher’s name should appear clearly on top of the front page.
- Your essay must be submitted on the due date during the period that you have English.

Weighting: 25%

Date Given: Week 5
Date of Completion: Week 9, Tuesday 17/09/19

Task Guidelines:
- Students must demonstrate understanding of the dramatic text and the techniques used
- Students must understand and be able to explore key ideas of the play
- Students must demonstrate an understanding of the structure and features of the essay text type.

Non Completion of Task:
- If you know you are going to be away on the day that the task is due, you must make alternative arrangements with your teacher beforehand. If you are suddenly away on the day that the task is due, you must contact your teacher or Head Teacher on your return to school. Documentation will be required in both cases. Failure to follow this procedure may result in a zero award.
- Plagiarism; the using of the work of others without acknowledgement, will incur serious penalties and may result in zero award. Any cheating will also incur penalties.

Outcomes Assessed:

- EN5-2A Effectively uses and critically assesses a wide range of processes, skills, strategies and knowledge for responding to and composing a wide range of texts in different media and technologies.
- EN5-3B Selects and uses language forms, features and structures of texts appropriate to a range of purposes, audiences and contexts, describing and explaining their effects on meaning.
- EN5-5C Thinks imaginatively, creatively, interpretively and critically about information and increasingly complex ideas and arguments to respond to and compose texts in a range of contexts.
