

Year 11 English Studies Assessment Task

Faculty: ENGLISH	Subject: English Studies	Topic: Part of the Family
Teacher:	Student:
Task Description:  Portfolio Text 1 of 2  You are to explore and document the procedure for making a meal that is significant to your family. This may take the form of a journal or blog post.  Your text must feature each of the following:  Part 1: Explain the significance of this meal to your family/household.  Part 2: Provide a detailed, step-by-step method for the recipe of your selected meal.  Part 3: Include photos of the preparation of the meal and people enjoying it.  All 3 parts of your task must be submitted to the library before 8.55am on the due date.  Read the marking criteria on the next page.
Date Given: 6/ 5/ 2019	Date of Completion: 28/ 5/ 2019 (Tuesday)
Weighting: 35%
Outcomes to be addressed: ES11-1, ES11-4, ES11-5, ES11-8.  Related Life Skills outcomes: ENLS6-1, ENLS6-2, ENLS6-3, ENLS6-6, ENLS6-7, ENLS6-8.
Penalties: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Zero will be awarded if the task is not submitted on the due date, before 8:55am, in the school library.</li><li>• All work submitted must be an original text. Any texts that are plagiarized will be given a zero mark. Refer to the NESA "All My Own Work" guidelines for advice.</li><li>• Late submissions will be awarded a zero unless appropriate illness/misadventure documentation is completed.</li></ul>

Marking Criteria:

	5 Sophisticated	4 High	3 Sound	2 Developing	1 Basic	Comments
Provides a detailed, step-by-step method for the recipe of your family's favourite meal.
Utilises the language forms and conventions of a procedural text to communicate the recipe in an accurate manner.
Explains in detail the significance of the meal to the family.
Utilises appropriate spelling, grammar, punctuation and paragraphing, as well as metalanguage and jargon throughout the blog/ journal.
Utilises photographs to enhance the documentation of the preparation of the meal and its significance to the family.

Feedback: