Assessment Outline

Students will study in detail Vietnam in order to examine the impact of continuity and change upon the lives of individuals and groups in the micro, meso and macro levels of society.

Students will explore BOTH continuity AND change in Vietnam through a detailed study of ONE of the following aspects: (~800 words)

- beliefs, values and lifestyles
- education
- family life and population changes
- gender roles and the status of men and women
- the legal system and political processes.

In relation to Vietnam, students will examine: (~400 words)

- Is all change necessarily progress?

Students present their information in a referenced research report, using pictures, graphs and subheadings.

Non-completion of Task:

If you know you are going to be away on the day that the task is due, you must make alternative arrangements with your teacher beforehand. If you are suddenly away on the day that the task is due, you must contact your teacher or Head Teacher on your return to school. Documentation will be required in both classes.

Plagiarism:

Plagiarism, the using of the work of others without acknowledgement will incur serious penalties and may result in zero award. Any cheating will also incur penalties.

Failure to follow the above procedures may result in a zero award.

The policies and procedures that are outlined on the ROSA booklet will be followed regarding the non-completion of assessment tasks.
