Assessment Outline

Part 1:

You are to compose an extended analytical response to the following question:

How has the composer of your prescribed text explored the role motivations play in significant human experiences?

Word count: 1200 words.

Draft responses are due to your English teacher a week prior to submission as per the English Faculty Drafting Policy. The essay will be submitted as a hard copy in the library on Monday the 2nd of December (Week 8) before 9:00am.

Part 2: Viva Voce

You will discuss your ideas about the Common Module, your prescribed text and one other text of your choosing with Mrs Macdonald and another marker. You will be required to respond to a random selection of talking points from the attached list- one from each cluster. Be prepared to respond to all of the attached talking points to show your understanding and justify your choices.

You are to present to room 105 at your allocated time for your Viva Voce.

Non-completion of Task:

If you know you are going to be away on the day that the task is due, you must make alternative arrangements with your teacher beforehand. If you are suddenly away on the day that the task is due, you must contact your teacher or Head Teacher on your return to school.
