

Resources for Planning and Creating

Sustainability Problems

Sustainability problems you may consider to base your assessment on:

- Mining
- Water usage
- Agriculture
- Land use
- Parks and recreational areas

Making a Video

Useful software to consider making a video on (note some of these programs may require you to sign up):

- Apple iMovie (only can be used on Apple products like Mac or iPad)
 - iMovie Basics: Video editing tutorial for beginners - <https://youtu.be/VF2mUJ0P3xU>
- Powtoon (<https://www.powtoon.com/>)
 - Tutorial: How to Use Powtoon - <https://youtu.be/IEQiZQi-aGY>
- Animoto (<https://animoto.com/>)
 - How to create a video with animoto - <https://youtu.be/5GX9bGx2T2w>
- Splice App (can be found in the Apple and Google Play Stores)
 - Splice App Tutorial - <https://youtu.be/GkItDHI2w2s>

Making a Interactive Website

Useful software to consider making a website on (note some of these programs may require you to sign up):

- Wix (<https://www.wix.com/>)
 - How to make a website with Wix - <https://youtu.be/qboKD0vEslY>
- Weebly (<https://www.weebly.com/au>)
 - Make a website with Weebly - https://youtu.be/2_b4vOqM_dQ

Making a Cartoon

Useful software to consider making a cartoon on (note some of these programs may require you to sign up):

- Pixton Edu
 - How to make a comic in Pixton EDU - <https://youtu.be/BZRJqu7CkNc>
- More information on different softwares can be found through the following link: <https://elearningindustry.com/the-5-best-free-cartoon-making-tools-for-teachers>