Congratulations to our Student Leadership Team comprised of Captains, Prefects and the Student Representative Council for the outstanding work last Wednesday planning the implementation of their projects for 2017. The team of elected representative students from years 7 to 12 formed teams and developed action plans for a wide range of projects. The initiatives are comprehensive and range from enhancing well-being and fitness, fund raising for charity through to promotion of student achievement and the further enhancement of our positive school culture. I look forward to working with this team and watching them continue to enhance our school culture.

Congratulations also to students in our High Achievement Classes who have recently been presenting their projects to teams of teachers. The feedback from teachers has been incredibly positive with a number recounting stories of being brought to tears through the depth and content of the projects. Particular praise must go to students in Year 7 for the particularly high standard of research and presentation at the conclusion of their first year of high school. I can't wait to see the full range of projects on display at the High Achievers Night in the Performing Arts Centre next Tuesday 15th November from 6pm—8pm.

Congratulations to students in Year 12 who have all now completed their final HSC exams.

The exams have proceeded extremely smoothly thanks to the outstanding students we have but also the exceptional HSC supervisors who work tirelessly to reduce the stress and anxiety that can sometimes be associated with the external exams. I have enjoyed talking to various students throughout and after the exam period and am excited for them as they begin the next phase of their lives.

Talking of exams, I have been impressed by the number of junior students who have started to develop and action a study plan for their upcoming final exams and assessment tasks. The development of independent learning skills is a terrific skill and one that will stand young people in good stead beyond school. Over the coming weeks we wish all students all the best for the assessments.
